Wednesday ~ PONDER

We've been traveling through Scripture this month and seeing different people who were called upward into courageous living. This week we see David passing the call to courage to his son, Solomon, and also, God calling the nation of Israel to courage as well.

- I Chronicles 28:20 – What 3 messages that we first heard God give to Joshua in Week 1, are we now hearing repeated here by David to his son, Solomon? Write them in your journal.
- I Chronicles 28:20 – It is important for us to live in courage, but also important to pass courage on to the next generation, teaching them where courage truly comes from. How might God desire you to pass courage on to those coming behind you? Journal your thoughts.
- I Chronicles 28:20 – David tells Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and act...” Courage takes root and begins on the inside of us, but the fruit of courage is doing/acting. God has been growing courage on the inside of us all month... are you acting upon that courage? How so? Journal your thoughts.
- Isaiah 41:10 – In this verse God is speaking to the nation of Israel, His chosen people. After much judgement and suffering He is calling them up into a place of blessing, but He knows they will need courage to live in all that He has for them. So... He tells them 5 things about Himself! Write them down.
- Isaiah 41:10 – As we are “in Christ” we know we've been grafted into God's nation too (Romans 11:17). That being true, we also need to hear/know these 5 things about our God! Ponder how knowing them will bring courage as you move forward. How can you make sure to remember them? Journal your thoughts.
